Welcome to St. Dunstan's!

O Holy Spirit, Root of life, Creator, cleanser of all things, anoint our wounds, awaken us with lustrous movement of your wings.

*O Holy Wisdom, soaring power, encompass us with wings unfurled, and carry us, encircling all,
above, below and through the world.*

~ Jean Janzen,
based on the writings of Hildegard of Bingen (12th c.)

Thank you for choosing to worship with St. Dunstan's this morning! We are a community of seekers doing our best to live authentically and faithfully in this challenging and complicated world, and we are delighted that you are sharing the journey with us today.

Children are always welcome here; please make yourself and your family at home. There are coloring sheets on the round table between the glass doors, as well as books and soft toys at the back of the church. Rest assured: We are delighted by the "joyful noise" that children inevitably make, and don't worry if you feel you need to take your child out of the service for a few minutes.

Babysitting for children 4 and under is provided downstairs in the Nursery. For everyone's safety, registration is required: Please scan the QR code to the left to sign up.

To learn more about offerings for children and families, please share your contact information on the clipboard on the Welcome Table.

Restrooms are located in the hallway by the glass doors.

If you find the wooden pews uncomfortable, feel free to borrow a cushion from the rear of the Nave for use during worship.

Please wear a name tag! Permanent name tags are on the board in the entry hall. If you don't yet have a permanent tag, please use a stick-on badge until we can make you an official one.

Unless otherwise noted, music for this morning's hymns may be found in the blue Hymnal 1982 or the red and black Lift Every Voice and Sing in your pew rack.

Please observe quiet before the service to enable everyone to pray and prepare for worship.

Processional Hymn

"Love divine, all loves excelling"

Music: Hymnal, 657

Love divine, all loves excelling,
joy of heaven, to earth come down, fix in us thy humble dwelling,
all thy faithful mercies crown.
Jesus, thou art all compassion, pure, unbounded love thou art;
visit us with thy salvation, enter every trembling heart.

Come, almighty to deliver,
let us all thy life receive;
suddenly return, and never,
nevermore thy temples leave.
Thee we would be alway blessing, serve thee as thy hosts above, pray, and praise thee without ceasing, glory in thy perfect love.

Finish then thy new creation;
pure and spotless let us be;
let us see thy great salvation perfectly restored in thee:
changed from glory into glory,
till in heaven we take our place,
till we cast our crowns before thee, lost in wonder, love, and praise.

verse 3 reharmonization and descant by Ulysses Squitieri

The Lesson: Acts 2:1-11

Lector A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles:

When the day of Pentecost had come, the disciples were all together in one place. And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability.

Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem. And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each. Amazed and astonished, they asked, "Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language? Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabs – in our own languages we hear them speaking about God's deeds of power."

Reading in "tongues":

French, American Sign Language, Dutch, Mandarin, Spanish, Afrikaans, and Italian

Lector Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People Thanks be to God.

Sequence Hymn

“O day of peace that dimly shines”

Hymnal, 597

O day of peace that dimly shines
through all our hopes and prayers and dreams, guide us to justice, truth, and love, delivered from our selfish schemes.
May swords of hate fall from our hands,
our hearts from envy find release, till by God’s grace our warring world shall see Christ’s promised reign of peace.

Then shall the wolf dwell with the lamb, nor shall the fierce devour the small;
as beasts and cattle calmly graze,
a little child shall lead them all.
Then enemies shall learn to love,
all creatures find their true accord;
the hope of peace shall be fulfilled,
for all the earth shall know the Lord.

The Gospel: John 20:19-23

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to John.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

When it was evening on that day, the first day of the week, and the doors of the house where the disciples had met were locked for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said, “Peace be with you.” After he said this, he showed them his hands and his side. Then the disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, “Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you.” When he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, “Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained.”

Deacon The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you Lord Christ.

Please be seated at the preacher’s invitation.

The Sermon

The Rector

After a moment of silence, please stand.

The Nicene Creed

Leader and People

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic* and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come, Amen.

universal*

The Prayers of the People

Let us pray:

Holy Spirit, breath of God, empower us to be faithful to your call to be reconcilers and healers. We pray for the mission and ministry of your universal Church throughout the world, remembering in particular: Sarah, Archbishop of Canterbury; Sean, our Presiding Bishop; Mariann, our Bishop, and Eugene, our Assisting Bishop; Hosam, Archbishop in Jerusalem; and all who minister in the Name of Christ. We lift our hearts in prayer,

Hear us and change us, O God.

Holy Spirit, who intercedes on our behalf with sighs too deep for words, protect and preserve this nation, as well as those places in the world torn apart by war and other violence, including: Bolivia, Haiti, the Holy Land, Iran, Sudan and South Sudan, and Ukraine. We also remember all those in authority in this and every land, and we pray with special intention for the safety of the members of our

Armed Forces, Foreign Service, and Emergency Services. We lift our hearts in prayer,

Hear us and change us, O God.

Holy Spirit, the Comforter of all who suffer and struggle, we pray for all who are in any need of healing of any kind, especially those remembered on our Parish Prayer List (see p. 15) and the people and situations we name now, silently or aloud:

Pause for prayers of petition or intercession

We lift our hearts in prayer,

Hear us and change us, O God.

Holy Spirit, eternal God, we name before you those who have died recently, remembering this week D.J. Crane (former son-in-law of Trudy Surut), Jared Zellmer (nephew of Deacon Sue von Rautenkranz), the victims of the Islamic Center shootings in San Diego, and those we name now, silently or aloud:

Pause for prayers for the departed

We lift our hearts in prayer,

Hear us and change us, O God.

Holy Spirit, who stirs up joy and gratitude within our hearts, we thank you for all the blessings of this life, especially for the marriage this evening of Woody Atwood (son of Fred and Gail Atwood) to Samantha Stone, as well as for those other good things we name now, silently or aloud:

Pause for prayers of thanksgiving

We lift our hearts in prayer,

Hear us and change us, O God.

The Doxology

Music: Hymnal, 380

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow;
praise God, all creatures here below;
praise God above, ye heavenly host:
praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

The Great Thanksgiving

Presider The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Presider Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Presider Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Presider

God of surprises, your Spirit brooded over the waters at creation and lived among your chosen people in wilderness, exile, and promised land.

Your Spirit filled Mary's womb at the moment of Jesus' conception and came upon him like a dove at his baptism.

When Christ died on the cross your power raised him from the tomb on the third day, and that same evening he breathed your forgiving grace on those who had deserted him.

On the day of Pentecost you sent your Spirit on the fearful disciples, filling them with fire, with power, with wonder and joy, and making them your church.

And so we gladly thank you, with angels and archangels and all the company of heaven, singing the hymn of your unending praise:

Sanctus

Hymnal, S-128

heaven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho-san - na in the high - est. Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho-san-na in the high-est.

Music: William Mathias (1934-1992). Copyright © 1976 Oxford University Press.

As you are able, please remain standing for the Eucharistic Prayer.

God of comfort and strength, we look to your Holy Spirit to be with us in sorrow and in contentment, in crisis and in abiding stillness.

Come among us now through the power of your Spirit, that we may be transformed into your image, and that these gifts of bread and wine may become for us the body and blood of your Son Jesus Christ; who at supper with his disciples took bread, gave you thanks, broke the bread, and gave it to them, saying,

“Take, eat: this is my body which is given for you; do this in remembrance of me.”

After supper he took the cup.

Again he gave you thanks, and gave it to his disciples, saying,

“Drink this, all of you: this is my blood of the new covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins.
Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.”

Great is the mystery of faith.

Presider and People

Christ has died;

Christ is risen;

Christ will come again.

God of dreams and prophecy, send down upon us your gifts of wisdom, knowledge, and faith; of healing, discernment, and interpretation, that your church may be built up in the likeness of your Son.

Let anyone who is hungry find in you the bread of life, and anyone who is thirsty find in you rivers of living water.

Speak your word to all who are alone and in fear or despair, and let each one of your children hear your voice in their own language, whether that language be art or science, work or play.

Sanctify your groaning Creation, that your universe may breathe your breath and be filled with your life anew, that we may love what you love, and do what you would do, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, ever one God, AMEN.

And now, as our savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say:

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever, Amen.
The Breaking of the Bread

A period of silence is kept.

Presider Alleluia! Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;

People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia!

Presider These are the Gifts of God, for you, the People of God, Amen.

Please be seated.

The Communion

*All are welcome to receive the Sacrament in one or both kinds. Consecrated wine is available by sipping directly from the silver chalice or by dipping your bread gently into the blue chalice; gluten-free Communion bread is available upon request. Now send us forth a people, forgiven, healed, renewed; that we may proclaim your love to the world and continue in the risen life of Christ our Savior, Amen.

The Pentecost Blessing

Presider May you know the work that is yours to do. May you give yourself to the doing of it. May the Spirit Who has inhabited Creation from generation to generation move through you with power and grace. And may the blessing of God be upon you and remain with you – and all those you love – from this day forth and forevermore, Amen.

Please join in singing.

Closing Hymn

“O beautiful for spacious skies”

Music: Hymnal, 719

O beautiful for spacious skies, for amber waves of grain, for purple mountain majesties above the fruited plain!
America! America! God shed his grace on thee,
and crown thy good with brotherhood from sea to shining sea.

O beautiful for heroes proved in liberating strife, who more than self their country loved, and mercy more than life!
America! America! God mend thine every flaw, confirm thy soul in self-control, thy liberty in law.

O beautiful for patriot dream that sees beyond the years thine alabaster cities gleam, undimmed by human tears!
America! America! God shed his grace on thee,
and crown thy good with brotherhood from sea to shining sea.

Please be seated following the hymn.
